REPUBLICAN CITY TICKET.

SPAULDING K. WALLACE. CITY SERGEANT, THOMAS D. BENNETT,

FRANK BOWERS. WHARP MAPTER, JOSEPH FORSYTHE.

What the Governor Didn't Do. If the Governor of West Virginia had been sitting as a judge, instead of standing before the High Court of public opinion as counsel for the accused, he would have said some things which he omitted to say in his remarkable, production misnamed

The Governor is not a dolt. Therefore we give him credit for knowing of some facts which he suppressed. His fervid arraignment of the Republican party for what it did not do from twelve to fifteen and nose. The white is spreading all over years ago was with no other intent than to her body. give the sanction of his high office to the misrepresentaions of his party designed, held in this country during the year-the as he designs his defence, to cover up his exposition of railway appliances at Chicago, party's tracks and divert attention from its the general exposition in Boston and the

He gloats over the Republican deficiencies which his party has invented as an inheritance, and in the same breath is forced to admit continuing deficiencies for which his party and it alone is responsible. For 1881 a deficiency of $80,000, tided over by borrowing the money from a bank of this city. For 1882 a deficiency of $110,-000, bridged over in the same way, tax payers being in for interest. Deduct from the promise-to-pay of 1881 $50,000 paid and we base $140,000 with interest as showing how much we have run behind in two years. It is urged in defense that the amount is not large. Admit it, and yet the principle of running behind every year -getting deeper in-is grossly wrong. The principal is the same as though the amount Ga., about almost every joint in whose ere a million. It declares a policy, establishes a precedent-for which the Governor and his party display such yearn-

The Constitution, made by the Democratic party, provides how deficiencies shall be met, and they have not been met at all. That instrument says in terms that "whenever any deficiency in the revenue shall exist in any year, it [the Legislature] shall, at the regular session thereof held next after the deficiency occurs, levy a tax for the ensuing year, sufficient, with the other sources of income, to meet such de-ficiency, as well as the estimated expenses of such year." In defiance of this wise and wholesome provision a deficiency in 1881 was allowed to be followed by a large one in 1882. An election was coming on, and the Democratic Legislature had not the courage to make a levy. Instead it ordered a revaluation of property-made an increase of values on paper—"watered" the stocks —and the party will try to break its fall by a chloroform process of extracting taxes. Perhaps it will be helped out of its difficult ties by that plea, and perhaps it won't. A better way—certainly the more honest way-would be to face the music, acknowl

call in those promissary notes. But the Governor recommends nothing of the kind. His was an effort of vindication, not of recommendation.
